Spiritual Disciplines Guide

Week of April 7, 2024

The past three weeks we have followed the Apostle Paul from his conversion to his missionary journeys to his captivity and eventual transport to Rome. Now let's pick up with the various letters Paul wrote during this time to a number of the churches he planted in Asia Minor and Greece.

We will start off this week with Paul's letter to the Galatian Christians. Galatia is a region of Asia Minor which makes up the modern nation of Turkey. Paul traveled to Galatia on his first and third missionary trips recorded in the book of Acts. The Christians in Galatia were being prompted by a group of Jewish Christians to receive circumcision and follow the Old Testament Jewish laws. The Apostle Paul writes this letter to clarify that, as Christians, they are saved and justified by faith alone and that Christian faith will set them free from religious bondage and legalism. That message still rings true for us today as well!
